Notes:

Manga is finally releasing the last installment of Angel Cop this month.

Gunsmith Cats arrives this month, with a special edition available with a

"making of" installment. Being as it has a successful comic book in the US and it's the first thing from Ken Ichi Sonoda (Bubblegum Crisis, Gall Force) in some years, it's sure to be a big seller. AnimEigo reasserts their presence in the market this month with Spirit of Wonder. Anime 18 also releases the third installment of Demon Beast Invasion, the first one with a budget, and without the mosaic... it's been described quite aptly as sort of an adult Bubblegum Crisis. The character design is a little better as well. Although it's not been announced yet, there will be a version of the third UrotsukiDoji series available soon in subtitled form. It will not be the complete four volume set, however. The sequel to the hot seller F3 finally ships this month – be sure to pick some up if adult titles do well for you. Word has it that we'll know fairly soon who is going to wind up with the new GAINAX show "Neon Genesis Evangelion", one of the best things to come out of Japan since Nadia (coincidentally, also a GAINAX show) went off the air. It deserves every bit of the hype that is currently surrounding it.

JEFF'S PICK OF THE MONTH

Although I hate saying this without seeing it first, there doesn't appear to be anything better than Gunsmith Cats this month. From the screenshots that I've seen, it looks great.
